

Year 10	Autumn A	Autumn B	Spring A	Spring B	Summer A	Summer B
Unit & length	IGCSE English Language: Descriptive Writing Coursework. IGCSE English Literature: Poetry Anthology	IGCSE English Language: Narrative Writing Coursework. IGCSE English Literature: Poetry Anthology	IGCSE English Literature Coursework: "An Inspector Calls".	IGCSE English Language: Responding to an Argument Writing Coursework. English Literature: Unseen Poetry.	IGCSE English Language: Summer mock exam preparation. IGCSE English Literature: Of Mice and Men	IGCSE English Language: Summer mock exam preparation. IGCSE English Literature: Of Mice and Men.
Curriculum outline	English Language: Students will receive lessons revising the sentence, vocabulary and composition work completed throughout KS3. These, along with lessons on descriptive writing techniques will inform the planning and drafting of the IGCSE descriptive writing coursework piece. English Literature: Students will study several poems from the EDEXCEL IGCSE poetry anthology.	English Language: Students will receive lessons building on the sentence, vocabulary and composition work completed throughout KS3. These, along with lessons on narrative writing techniques will inform the planning and drafting of the IGCSE descriptive writing coursework piece. English Literature: Students will study several poems from the EDEXCEL IGCSE poetry anthology.	English Literature: Students will read "An Inspector Calls" by J.B Priestley, focusing on key themes, characters, and events. There will be lessons focusing on close reading, constructing analytical paragraphs, selecting and using quotations.	English Language: Students will focus on a non-fiction text that develops a strong argument. They will read additional texts relating to the subject of the non-fiction text. There will be lessons on critiquing an argument, offering counter arguments and close reading the non-fiction texts. These lessons will inform the planning and drafting of the Responding to an Argument coursework piece. English Literature: Students will read a range of "unseen" poems, focusing on developing their ability to tackle texts they are unfamiliar with.	English Language: Students will prepare for the summer mock exam by looking at the requirements of each of the exam questions and developing ways of how to approach them. A range of past papers and bespoke resources will focus on the following areas: information retrieval, writing a summary, language analysis and text transformation. English Literature: Students will read their Year 11 exam text "Of Mice and Men" by John Steinbeck, focusing on key characters, language, themes and context.	English Language: Students will continue the exam preparation started in Summer 1. English Literature: Students will complete their reading of "Of Mice and Men" and revise poetry anthology poems covered in the Autumn term.
Assessment/s	English Language: Students will complete their descriptive writing coursework piece.	English Language: Students will complete their narrative writing coursework piece.	English Literature: Students will complete their "Inspector Calls" coursework essay.	English Language: Students will complete their Responding to an Argument coursework piece.	No assessments.	English Language: Summer Mock Exam (past paper)

Year 11	Autumn A	Autumn B	Spring A	Spring B	Summer A
Unit & length	English Language: IGCSE Exam Preparation	English Literature: Romeo and Juliet (coursework)	English Literature Exam Revision Countdown Lessons	English Literature Exam Revision Countdown Lessons continued
Curriculum outline	Students will receive lessons preparing them for the IGCSE English Language exam that will take place towards the end of term. A range of past papers and bespoke resources will focus on the following areas: information retrieval, writing a summary, language analysis and text transformation. There will be a walk-through exam where students are guided through the paper in detail.	English Literature: Students will read "Romeo and Juliet" by William Shakespeare, focusing on key themes, characters, events and the play's context. There will be lessons focusing on close reading, constructing analytical paragraphs, selecting and using quotations.	English Literature: Students will receive lessons focusing on: Of Mice and Men Anthology Poems Unseen Poems Content from Year 10 will be revised. English Language: Students who have not passed their IGCSE English Language exam will also receive lessons preparing them for the summer exam retake.	A continuation of the Revision Countdown lessons started in Spring A on: Of Mice and Men Anthology Poems Unseen Poems English Language: Exam preparation lessons for students who need them.	English Literature EDEXCEL IGCSE exam. English Language IGCSE retake opportunity for some students who need it.
Assessment/s	IGCSE English Language Exam	English Literature: Students will complete their "Romeo and Juliet" coursework essay.	In class assessments: specifically mock exam tasks based on past papers (with some bespoke tasks).	English Literature: Mock exam sat under exam conditions.	